Tourism & Hospitality

Original brochure pages 22-29 | Extract prepared 12 September 2026

Source and scope

Historical source, not a current offer

Project status, land availability, demand, eligibility and contact information in the source require current verification. Proposed or planned projects are not confirmed available investment offers. This extract does not establish returns, approvals or a participation route.

The original PDF metadata records creation on 11 September 2025; that is not a verified formal publication date. Shared incentive and land tables have not been appended because their terms and area classifications need separate current verification.

Resort at Mechuka

At 6,000 feet, Mechuka's views and access make it an ideal destination for a premium resort.

Homestay Partnership

With rising tourism, locals are offering homestays, supported by state aid, where brand partnerships can boost the sector.

Film Production Unit in Pasighat

Pasighat's beauty and connectivity make it ideal for film shoots; a film city can draw global filmmakers to Arunachal.

Wellness Tourism

Arunachal's serenity, tradition and hospitality makes it a perfect destination for wellness retreats.

Upcoming Tourism Opportunities

Innovation in Tourism

Arunachal's tourism is evolving with wine-tasting and winery tours for kiwi and Rhododendron wines. As the 'Orchid Paradise of India' with 622 species, the State is planning for orchid museums and festivals. Tourism startups add to this growing potential.

Work From Home Tourism

With remote work on the rise, Arunachal offers a serene Work-from-Home escape, combining productivity with wellness tourism.

Festival Promotion

Arunachal's festivals offer diverse experiences and great potential for broader promotion in domestic and global markets. The Ziro Festival of Music (ZFM) is a prime example, attracting visitors from around the world.

Leisure Transport from Dibrugarh, Guwahati and Pasighat

Dibrugarh, Pasighat, and Guwahati connect Arunachal by air. Hollongi Airport boosts access to Itanagar. Luxury buses, caravans, and river cruises can enhance leisure travel experiences.
